

Consignment Books

RoseSprings Center for the Healing Arts will accept used books on consignment of a healing and/or spiritual nature that complement the philosophies of RoseSprings. RoseSprings reserves the right to decide which books will be accepted and when they will be accepted.

While RoseSprings will use every effort to keep consignment books safe and free of damage, RoseSprings will not be held responsible in any way for any damage or loss suffered.

Prices will be set by the person bringing books in for consignment sale. All forms will be completed by this person before books will be accepted by RoseSprings. Unsold books may be taken back by the owner by the owner making an appointment with an appropriate RoseSprings representative to check the books out. Books will remain on consignment for three months at the original price. After that time, RoseSprings has the right to discount or put the books on sale. After six months the books shall be picked up by the owner or they will become the property of RoseSprings.

When a book sells, RoseSprings will retain 20% of the sale and put 80% on account for the owner. Accounts will be settled on the 15th of each month (or first following business day if weekend or holiday) and checks will be available for pick up on the 16th of each month.
