

Native American Flute Class

Fun & Easy to Play
No Musical Experience Needed

Playing the Native American Flute will help you release your heart and soul to soar on the breath of sound. Students will learn the basic fingering patterns for different scales and easy techniques to add texture. Together we will create solo compositions and be able to play with others in duets, ensembles and jam sessions in a short time. No prior music education is required and reading music will not be taught. The Joy of expression through improvisation will be the focus of the classes.
