

Rites Night at RoseSprings

Munay-Ki: The Nine Great Rites Sacred Gift of the Andes

Wednesday ~ March 17 ~ 7-9 pm

Ed and Beverly invite you to explore the nine energy transmissions of the Andes known as the “Munay-Ki” rites.

These rites are the energetic “codes” for this new human - the “Light Being”. They build our energy bodies and connect us to the long-forgotten medicine teachings deep in our being. They provide a sense that our very existence is divine and has purpose, whether we can define it or not.

A warm, empowering community awaits your unique gifts!
More information about the rites can be found at www.munay-ki.org

The Rites are intended as a gift, to be passed forward, and we do not charge a fee for Rites gatherings. Your love offering will be received in gratitude and will help make the gatherings sustainable, while cementing your intention for right relationship.

The Gift of the Andes

The Q’ero elders of Peru have responded to their call to share the ancient truths and ceremonies they guarded lovingly for hundreds of years, since before the time of the Inca. They offer the initiations to all who come with an open heart and right intention. They ask that we live them as best we can, and pass them forward when called to do so.

We hope you’ll accept this beautiful gift.
